

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 16, 2010

For more information, contact:

Megan A. Fitton
Shilepsky O'Connell Hartley Casey Michon Yelen Robb LLP
mfitton@shoclaw.com
617-447-2811

Two Partners Named in Annual Lawdragon List

BOSTON - Shilepsky O'Connell Hartley Casey Michon Yelen Robb LLP, a firm specializing in executive and professional advocacy law, today announced that partners H. James Hartley and Nancy S. Shilepsky have been named national finalists to the 2010 "Lawdragon 500" list of leading lawyers in America. Lawdragon is an attorney ranking and legal news service. It reportedly assembled its annual list of top lawyers "through a unique combination of online balloting and independent research," including interviews with clients and peers.

Mr. Hartley specializes in executive and professional advocacy. He brings acute expertise to the representation of executives, professionals and businesses in employment matters. He has particular experience in complex executive transition and litigation matters, including mergers and acquisitions, change-in-control agreements, non-competition provisions and incentive/equity compensation.

Ms. Shilepsky is an executive advocacy pioneer and is a dominant and influential figure in the employment law field. She represents executives and professionals across a wide range of industries with regard to complex employment matters involving executive employment, retention, compensation, whistle-blowing and severance. She is also well known for her pioneering work in wrongful termination and discrimination cases.